N [capital N] represents a silent noon – If the capital N is placed at the end or in the middle of a word, the N will not be pronounced, it will be silent. E.g. 'DaiN' will be pronounced as 'Dai' i.e. the 'N' is silent and not pronounced.

Care and attention has been put into the production of this transliteration. If however, any mistakes or errors are found it is solely our own, for which we seek Allah's forgiveness.

FOREWORD BY HUZŪR TĀJUSH SHARI'AH

Nahmaduhu Wa Nusalli Alā Rasūlihil Karīm

I have been told that Muhammad Tahir Raza from Colombo, Lanka has done the transliteration of Safina-e-Bakhshish, my poetic collection in praise of Sayyiduna Rasūlullah صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ,

May Allah accept his effort and keep him firm on the path of Ālā Hazrat.

FOREWORD BY JANASHEEN-E-HUZŪR TĀJUSH SHARI'AH

All praise is due to Allah, Salutations upon the Best of creation, Our Master Muhammad-ur-Rasūlullah ﷺ

I have been requested to say a few words for Barakah on my Beloved Father Huzūr Tāj us-Sharī'ah's Alaihir Rahmah Deewan, Safīna-e Bakshish which is transliterated by Tahir Raza of Colombo.

In doing so, he has made it easy for the English readers, as in this day and age people, especially the younger generation, mostly read English. May Allāh accept his efforts and reward him abundantly.

May Allāh bless all those who have taken part in preparing, and publishing this book. May Allāh keep TheSunniWay and Anjuman Faiz-e Raza under the Maslak of the great Imām Ahmad Razā Khan and May they serve the Deen with sincerity.

FOREWORD BY HUZŪR MUHADDITH-E-KABEER

Huzūr Tāj us-Sharī'ah possessed a natural talent in poetry. He could present his poetry on whatever scale he wished. This poetry of his is mostly on the blessed praise of our Master Muhammad صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى آلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ and some in praise of the pious predecessors and there are also some which he presented in mourning of those who passed away. All this poetry is completely natural and full of eloquence and in accordance to the rules and regulations of poetry. It is such poetry that at times a doubt occurs that this is the poetry of the great Imām Mufti Azam or Our Master, the great Imām Ālā Hazrat رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ. This style of his appears completely gifted.

His poetry is overwhelming with exactness. Whether the poetry is in the Urdu or Arabic language, it is definitely never anything less in eloquence than than the poetry of any expert and great poet. At some places, he has proven his uniqueness. In the same way as Allah تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى gave him excellence above his contemporaries in the field of knowledge, he appears to have excelled above his contemporaries in his poetry. Amongst his poetry, many are commonly recited in a lovely manner which is dear to the people. This is why his poetry appears to be popular and loved by both, the 'common' and the 'elite'. When it is recited, the listeners experience a spiritual condition. Janāb Tahir Sahib from Colombo desired to rewrite the poetry in a roman font for the many people who wish to recite the poetry of Huzūr Tāj us-Sharī'ah but are unable to read the Persian font. Thus he intended to transform the poetry in to the English Font to fulfill the wish of these people. Thus, he has transformed the Urdu and Arabic poetry in to the English Font. May Allah ﷻ accept this effort of his, reward him well and make this work popular amongst the common and the elite. I make dua for him that may Allah reward him very well for his love.

FOREWORD BY MUFTI AFTHAB CASSIM

All Praise is due to Almighty Allah, The Sustainer of the Universe. Durood and Salāms upon the most praiseworthy in Allah's creation, Sayyiduna Rasūlullah ﷺ, and upon his admirable family, and marvellous companions, and upon all those Beloveds of Allah, who have and will continue to praise the Most Beloved of Allah ﷺ with pearls of praise and admiration.

The Qutb ul Aqtāb of the era, Huzūr Sayyidī Tājush Shariah Imam Muhammad Akhtar Razā Khan Qādiri Azhari رضي الله عنه was indeed an Āshiq-e-Rasūl صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, and was thus absorbed in the love of Rasūl-e-Kareem صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. He firmly followed the blessed tradition of his illustrious family, whose love for Sayyiduna Rasūlullah صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ knew no bounds.

Huzūr Sayyidī Tājush Shariah رضي الله عنه composed many a Hamd, Na'at and Manqabat, which were later compiled to form a beautiful bouquet of Islamic Religious Poetry. Even the name given to this bouquet of poetry was consistent with the names of the books of Islamic Religious Poetry written by his illustrious forefathers. Ālā Hazrat رضي الله عنه wrote the world renowned 'Hada'iq-e-Bakhshish' i.e. 'The Gardens of Salvation, Huzūr Mufti-e-Azam رضي الله عنه wrote the prominent 'Samān-e-Bakhshish' i.e. 'The Provisions for Salvation', and this bouquet of blessings written by Huzūr Sayyidī Tāj us-Sharī'ah ﷺ was named, 'Safīna-e-Bakhshish' 'The Ship of Salvation'. The name itself shows his spiritual resemblance to his illustrious forefathers. If anyone who is a true devotee of the Beloved Rasūl ﷺ examines the Kalāms written by Huzūr Sayyidī Tājush Shariah ﷺ, he will have no alternative but to declare that Huzūr Sayyidī Tāj us-Sharī'ah ﷺ is a true Āshiq-e-Rasūl صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ and at the same time he is a true lover of the Awliyah Allah. His writings flow with the fragrance of Ishq-e-Nabi صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ

My beloved brother in Deen, Janaab Tahir Raza Qādiri Razvi of Colombo Sri Lanka has been blessed with closeness to the two great luminaries of this era, namely Huzūr Sayyidī Tājush Shariah ﷺ and Huzūr Sayyidī Muhad'dith-e-Kabeer. He has made a great effort to transliterate the Safeena-e-Bakhshish so that those who are unable to read Urdu may benefit from this transliteration in the English Roman script. This transliteration of Safeena-e-Bakhshish is now being published during the 100th Urs of Sayyidī Ālā Hazrat Imam Ahmad Razā Khan ﷺ. We have called this year 1440 Hijri, 'The Year of Ālā Hazrat'.

I pray through the Wasila of Nabi-e-Kareem صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ and through the blessings of all the Masha'ikh that Almighty Allah blesses Janaab Tahir Raza with the best of rewards for this effort, and keeps him and us in the love of the beloved Nabi صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلٰى آلِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ and firm on Maslak-e-Ālā Hazrat. Āmeen. May Allah Almighty reward the publishers, TheSunniWay and Anjuman Faiz-e-Raza for their efforts in publishing this beautiful work, and all those who have supported in any other way in bringing this project to its successful finale.

FOREWORD BY MUFTI ZAHID HUSSAIN

باسمہ تعالیٰ وبعد الصلاۃ والسلام علی مولانا

I have been informed by my dear friend Tahir Raza from Colombo that he has transliterated the whole of Safīna-e-Bakhshish of this era's Ālā Hazrat Imām Akhtar Razā Khān Al-Azhari Al-Qādiri Al-Hanafi of Bareilly Sharīf. Safīna-e-Bakhshish is a collection of the poetry of this great Imām which possesses the qualities of the poetry of Ālā Hazrat Imām Ahmad Razā Khān Al-Barelwi. The poetry in this collection has no equivalent in this time and in fact it surpasses the poetry of many poets who came before, never mind the contemporary poets. The poetry itself bears witness to the fact that Imām Akhtar Razā Khan Al-Azhari is the true inheritor of the great Ālā Hazrat Imām Ahmad Razā Khān Al-Barelwi. The poetry in this book expresses ideas and thoughts that only a man in deep love is able to produce and the language used is so powerful in many places that it leaves us in deep intellectual wonder. The poetry is free from anything that is useless and against the Sharī'ah. It is free from false claims and presents the occurrence of true emotions and thoughts in the reader's and listener's heart and mind. I am not fond of transliterations due to the potential errors it can cause in the recitation, however, due to a lack of interest in learning to read the Urdu language amongst our youth, it has become beneficial to provide transliterations so that the devotees of Rasūl-Allah ﷺ amongst our youth can attempt to recite this religious poetry and increase the love of Allah ﷻ and the Beloved Prophet Muhammed ﷺ in the hearts and minds. I have not seen this transliteration yet but I have complete hope that it is done well and with a sincere intention. May Allah ﷻ reward Tahir Raza and make this work reach the four corners of the Muslim World.

BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF TĀJ AL-SHARĪʿAH

The Grand Muftī of India, the great grandson of Imām Aḥmad Riḍā, the rightful successor of al-Muftī al-Āʿẓam, Shaykh al-Islām, Tāj al-Sharīʿah Muftī Akhtar Riḍā Khān al-Qādirī – may Allah have mercy on him and elevate his station.

He was born on Monday 24th of Dhū al-Qaʿdah 1352 AH (circa 23 November 1943) in Bareilly Sharīf, India. His father was al-Mufassir al-Aʿẓam Mawlānā Ibrāhīm Riḍā s/o Hujjat al-Islām Mawlānā Ḥāmid Rīḍā s/o Imām Ahl al-Sunnah Imām Aḥmad Rīḍā s/o Raīs al-Mutakallimīn Mawlānā Naqī ʿAlī.

At the age of four years, four months and four days, his father organised the customary Bismillāh khwānī (a ceremony marking the commencement of a child's Islamic education). His grandfather, al-Muftī al-Aʿẓam Imām Muṣṭafā Riḍā, the son of Imām Aḥmad Riḍā, carried out the tradition.

He studied the preliminary Urdu books under his father and thereafter enrolled in the renowned institution, Dārul ʿUlūm Manẓar-e-Islām (Bareilly, India) where he studied advanced books with competent and senior teachers of the institute. After graduating from Manẓar-e-Islām, in 1963, he enrolled in Jāmiʿah al-Aẓhar (Cairo, Egypt) for 3 years where he further studied the sciences of Tafsīr, Ḥadīth and Uṣūl, and graduated with distinction in 1966. In 1967, he took on the task of teaching in his alma mater, Manẓar-e-Islām and also undertook the important task of issuing fatwā. He stopped formally teaching in 1980, although he continued issuing fatwā for a very long time thereafter. He also continued to deliver seminars to students of the Dār al-Iftā.

Some of his notable teachers are:

1. Al-Muftī al-Aʿẓam Imām Muṣṭafā Riḍā, the son of Imām Aḥmad Riḍā.
2. Al-Mufassir al-Aʿẓam Mawlānā Ibrāhīm Riḍā Jīlānī, his father.
3. Muftī Muḥammad Afḍal Hussain.
4. Ṣadr al-ʿUlemā' Muftī Muḥammad Taḥsīn Riḍa.

He had the honour of pledging allegiance [bayʿah] to his grandfather, al-Muftī al-Aʿẓam Imām Muṣtafā Riḍā, who granted him authorisations (ijazah) and khilāfat in all chains in a mīlād gathering in 1381 AH (1962).

He toured Syria in 2008 and 2009, where he was welcomed by eminent scholars, including the Grand Muftī of Damascus. In 2009, he also toured Egypt from 3 May until 6 May. He was shown immense respect by senior scholars who were amazed by his knowledge and level of learning. At least 45 senior scholars from world-renowned institutions in Egypt, such as al-Azhar, Jāmiʿah al-Qāhirah, Jāmiʿah ʿAyn al-Shams and Jāmiʿah Dawl al-ʿArabiyyah sought blessings from him and requested authorisations (ijāzah) in Ḥadīth. During this tour, the management of Jāmiʿah al-Azhar awarded him with al-Azhar's highest award, Fakhr al-Azhar Award (The Pride of al-Azhar), in recognition of his competence and service to Islam.

He has written and translated many books in various languages despite his ill health and constant travelling for the sole purpose of propagating Islam and the true teachings of the Ahl al-Sunnah. He particularly focused on translating Imām Aḥmad Riḍā's books into Arabic in order to dispel the widespread misconceptions in the Arab world regarding Imām Aḥmad Riḍā and the methodology ascribed to him. These translations allowed the Arab world to see that the methodology of Imām Aḥmad Riḍā was strictly in line with the methodology of the Ahl al-Sunnah. In many of his written monographs on contemporary rulings, the level of research and writing-style he adopts reminds one of the phenomenal monographs of his great grandfather, the Imām of the Ahl al-Sunnah Imām Aḥmad Riḍā.

Some of his works are as follows –

Written by him:

1. Mar'atul Najdiyyah bi-Jawāb al-Baraylwiyyah (also known as Ḥaqīqah al-Baraylwiyyah) (Arabic)
2. Tahqiq anna Abā Ibrāhīm Tārakh lā Āzar (Arabic)

Bīmar-e-Hijr-e-Bā da Amm, Apni Nazar ka Jām do

Guncha-e-Dil Khilaiye, Jalwa-e-Rukh Dikhaiye
Jām-e-Nazar Pilaiye, Dour ChalaiN Mudām do

Farsh-e-Nazar pe ho Guzar, Pāmāl hun mein Sar ba Sar
Rehwar-e-Nāz ko Idhar Junbish Pa-e-Khirām do

Unn ki Amān mein raHaiN, Jinn ke Karam se mil gaey
Unn ke Chaman ke Pāsbān "Hussam" aur "Humām" do

Ye donu bay-khatar raHaiN, Islām ki Sipar raHaiN
Ā'da-e-Dīn par raHaiN, Shamshīr-e-BayNiyām do

Kashti Meri Hayat ki Ub tou Kinaray lag gaī
Kehti hay tum se Zindagī ub tou Ma-e-Dawam do

Maidan-e-Nāt-e-Shah-e-Dī(n), Akhtar hay pur Khatar Zamī(n)
Ye Majlis-e-Ghazal Nahīn, Munh ko zara Lagam do

Ye Patā Hai Bohat Rahbarī Ke Liye

Maslak-E-Alā hazrat Salamat Rahay
Aik Pehchān Dīn-E-Nabī Ke Liye

Maslak-E-Alahazrat Pe Qā'im Raho
Zindagī Di Ga'ī Hay Issī Ke Liye

Sulh-E-Kullī Nabī Kā Nahī Sunnīyo!
Sunnī Muslim Hai Saccha Nabī Ke Liye

Wo Bulātay Hain, Ko'ī Ye Awāz De
Dam Mein Jā PohnchūN Mein Hāzirī Ke Liye

Aey Nasīm-E-Sabā Unn Se Keh De Shaha
Muztarib Hai Gadā Hāzirī Ke Liye

Jin Ke Dil Mein Hai Ishq-e-Nabī Kī Chamak
Wo Tarastay Nahī Chāndnī Ke Liye

Jin Ke Dil Mein Hai Jalway Teray Ishq Ke
Wo Hai Najm-E-ZamāN Roshnī Ke Liye

Akhtar-E-Qadrī Khuld Mein Chal Diyā
Khuld Wā Hay Har Ek Qādrī Ke Liye
